

We at Lloyd believe that communication is an integral part of business and the correct nurturing can help in defining radical changes in personality of students. Under this initiative a 2 day work shop was conducted .

A Two day's workshop was conducted by Mr Paras Narula from Safeducate on 30th and 31st March, 2017 at premises of Lloyd Business School. It was two days' Behavioral workshop of PGDM students of (Logistics and Supply Chain Management), LLOYD College, Greater Noida, Uttar Pradesh .

The session constituted of the following English communication exercise on Regular Events, Frequency expressions, Personality Types, Pronunciation: The Listening activity on Personality types, reading activity ,Tenses covered: (Present Simple, Present Simple Passive)Email Etiquette Exercise Topics on professional attitude Business Communication topics on Customer Service, Starting a business conversation on Phone ,listening activity on Customer Service and Business Conversation on phone.

The session was well accepted and appreciated by students of PGDM.

Planning for many more in future!!